ARTIST BIO

Carlos Hollis (born December 28, 1981), better known as Carlos Vacation, is an American Musician, Actor, Songwriter, and Event Promoter. He was born and raised in Detroit, MI, where he attended Redford and a string of other high schools during a period of severe civil unrest in the city Detroit. During this time of tribulation Carlos used music as a tool when either in search of peace of mind or as an element of celebration when acknowledging an achievement or milestone. Carlos started singing when he was 5 years old became increasingly interested in rap as he grew older. It was this love for both genres that, at the age of 12, helped Carlos gain the insight to experiment with the fusion of both sounds, which led to the develop of his own unique sound and style of writing. Carlos's passion for music was inspired by a long list of artist from greats like Donnie Hathaway to the new legends like Bryson Tiller and August Alsina. Carlos Vacation is signed to Paid Vacation Entertainment LLC located in Detroit, MI and managed by Royal Seal Entertainment LLC . Carlos is available for bookings globally to perform radio clean edits or uncut versions of all songs. Carlos Vacation's current release EP "4 years later..." featuring the lead single "Now that I'm Boss" has 1.9 million views on Soundcloud, has been played on radio by power house FM Station's like 97.3 The Beat in Grand Rapids, Michigan; and has been given a highly favorably review by industry veteran T.J Chapman. The EP has other notable standouts like "Used to be the Man", for Carlos Vacation is also currently the featured artist on PVE Music Xstream and is available on all digital streaming and download platforms including iTunes, Google Play, Spotify, etc. The Carlos Vacation has performed at live events such as, "The Network Music Conference" in Detroit Michigan, "The
